Positive: a group of students walking past a large building (modern building, glass walls, bulldog statue) smiling, having fun, (masterpiece, best quality, hires, high resolution:1.2), extremely detailed, professional full body photo of (male student wearing jacket:1.2), pov, high quality, masterpiece, cinematic, realistic, highres, (4K realistic texture), (dynamic pose, soles, perfect face, cute, full body)

Negative: (worst quality, low quality, normal quality, lowres, low details, oversaturated, undersaturated, overexposed, underexposed, grayscale, bw, bad photo, bad photography, bad art:1.4), (watermark, signature, text font, username, error, logo, words, letters, digits, autograph, trademark, name:1.2), (blur, blurry, grainy), morbid, ugly, asymmetrical, mutated malformed, mutilated, poorly lit, bad shadow, draft, cropped, out of frame, cut off, censored, jpeg artifacts, out of focus, glitch, duplicate, (airbrushed, cartoon, anime, semi-realistic, cgi, render, blender, digital art, manga, amateur:1.3), (3D, 3D Game, 3D Game Scene, 3D Character:1.1), (bad hands, bad anatomy, bad body, bad face, bad teeth, bad arms, bad legs, deformities:1.3)

After the initial struggle of using Stable Diffusion for the first time, I was able to talk to other more experienced students and learned a lot about the value of negative prompts as well as parenthesis. It's not perfect, but the library is a big part of Fresno State's iconic aesthetic.

I thought would make it more obvious that it had something to do with Fresno State. So, I used inpaint to remove the girl so i could have more room to add my next item in with sketch. The next two are some of the results of using inpaint/sketch and various levels of denoise.
